

Red, green and Blues

Grafton Sings the Blues at Christmas

No snow? No cold? No problem!
It was hard to feel blue on Saturday, as Grafton experienced perfect weather for its Christmas parade.

Photos by Mark Justesen

The 484th Army Band

Santa Claus, the main attraction

John Long Middle School Marching Band

Cloverleaf 4-H Club float

Future Grafton High School cheerleaders

Doug Arendt, driving Leroy Paulin

Grafton's outstanding citizen and parade marshal, Bob Lauer

Grafton High School Marching Band

Lake Shore Dance

High-fiving a reindeer

Waiting for the parade to start

Swinging snowmen

Direct from the Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade, the South Shore Drill Team

Jolly the Elf

Good parade-viewing position, corner of Wisconsin and Washington avenues

Hoping to catch Wave mini soccer balls

Striding over the crowd