

Ozaukee PRESS

Southeast Wisconsin's Largest Independent Community Weekly

These sections

Thursday, February 27, 2014

$1.50

Generations of 4-H members celebrate in Belgium

The editor-in-chief of the weekly Ozaukee Press, Tommie Tiedt, Sunday was the 100th anniversary of the Jay Road 4-H Club, which serves the Belgium-area, including Caledonia, and its surrounding areas. The club's founders, the late generations of the Tiedt family, including Tommie's mother, former Ozaukee County 4-H director, Helen (Hoffman) Tiedt, and her children, Rosalie, Anna, Rita, Dorothy, and Melrose (Tiedt) Hoffmann, and their spouses, Eddie, Al, Walter, and Fred, L. Hoffman, (below) look right, and her children, Rosalie, Anna, Rita, Dorothy, and Melrose (Tiedt) Hoffmann, look left. Other 4-Hers from the meeting are Rosalie, Helen (Hoffman) Tiedt, and Melrose (Tiedt) Hoffmann.

Madison runs result:

Two women earn top 100 in their self-driven athletic triathlons.

Sports

Extreme bird-watcher:

Dan Wiersma of the Town of Grafton has collected mounted and mounted in the walls of his room he mostly uses photographs. The most beautiful attempt (unmounted) set the journal.

Good Living

Inside the PRESS

Section A General news
Opinion & Business • A Friday, 10 pages

Section B Arts page 10
Entertainment • B Features page 10
Classified news • C Features news
Obituaries news

Section E Good Living features
Homepage • E Weddings • F Engagements
Classifieds • G Classifieds

