

Leader's Association Meeting
Thursday, September 15th, 2016
Ozaukee Pavilion-North

The meeting was called to order at 7:39 by Vice President, Jessie Schoessow. Following that was the pledges.

The Secretary's report was read and approved after Bob Eichner made a motion that was seconded by Brenda Mueller.

The Treasurer's report was read and approved after Brenda Mueller made a motion that was seconded by Bob Eichner.

Aaron Brown introduced the new app that would be used to keep track of funding for the next treasurer and for the next two years that he will be serving. This was introduced after being approved prior by the Executive Board.

Plat books are still being sold. Within the last month seven more books were sold, and they are continuing to sell.

The success of the brat fry fundraiser was discussed. There has been some success, but not as much as expected by the board and other leaders.

Brenda Mueller looked into doing the fruit sale fundraiser through the farm bureau. The fruit sale will be on the same schedule as last year. This year's fundraiser will feature fresh fruit and nuts.

This past fair had a very successful Clover Cafe. Everything ran smoothly. The addition of the crème puffs was a huge success with about two thousand puffs sold.

Town and Country put on a county wide rummage sale open to the public. There was some success and it is hoped to grow again next year.

The Haunt is still in need of help in the build and setup. There will be classes held for both makeup training and actor training in early October to prep anyone involved.

Roger Knepprath built shelving in the storage unit and organized the unit.

Lynn Neumann gave a camp update. This year the county will be returning to Camp Lakotah from June 28th to July 1st.

Roger Knepprath also covered parking at fair. Overall this year was a successful year with quite a bit of volunteers. The parking ran very smoothly.

The audit and budget has been sent out and the due date to make corrections is this Friday, September 16th.

The Leaders banquets will be held soon. There will be a youth leader banquet and an adult leader banquet. These banquets will be held in the pavilion.

An announcement was made that the board is looking for new members. To take part in the board an application must first be filled out. They are looking for two, two year volunteers and two, three year volunteers.

Aaron Brown discussed the conference in Haiti. All who participated has a very good time. Around 89 youth and 6-7 adults attended the conference.

It was also announced that the second part of the charter is due October 15th.

Achievement prizes were ordered and will be coming soon. This includes hats, pencils, necklaces and more.

The Meeting was adjourned at 9:20pm after a motion was made by Jody Brzezinski and seconded by Brenda Mueller.

Respectfully Submitted,

Mackenzie Neumann, Secretary

Roll Call

- Cloverleaf 4-H Club- 3
- Covered Bridge 4-H Club1
- Deckers Corners 4-H Club1
- Holy Cross 4-H Club2
- In Stride 4-H Club2
- Jay Road 4-H Club1
- Knellsville 4-H Club2
- Lakeview 4-H Club1
- Lindenwood 4-H Club4
- Little Kohler 4-H Club1
- Town & Country 4-H Club7
- Waubeka 4-H Club2
- County wide leaders 0