Spring is the season for raising lambs

For those who raise lambs, like 11-year-old Clara Steinert and her brother Charlie, 9, spring is a busy time of the year. The Knellsville 4-H members posed with their animals Monday at the Town of Belgium farm of Sue Richison, who breeds lambs, then teaches 4-H members how to care for them. Clara and Charlie's lambs, both born in February and already handtutis, are bound for the Ozaukee County Fair this summer.
