Ozaukee 4-H makes its mark at archery tournament

Ozaukee County 4-H members participated in the Tri-County Statewide 4-H Invitational on April 4 and April 5. The contest included an indoor archery competition, indoor air rifle competition, art contest and wildlife ecology contest. It included 392 youths from 15 Wisconsin counties, 55 from Ozaukee County. The event was the culmination of the archery project for the 2013-14 year. The Ozaukee County 4-H highlights include two first-place awards for Paige Pierson for her color wildlife photo and for wildlife crafts, and a firstplace for Jessie Schoessow for her wildlife painting. Red ribbons were given to Emily Paulus for her wildlife drawing, Natalie Batzko for her wildlife photo in color and Maria Lee for wildlife crafts. Elizabeth Esseer and Jacob Meier took second place in the wildlife ecology category. In the individual archery competition, second-place awards were given to Kathryn Paulus for her compound with one aid and Rebekah Rathke for her recurve with one aid. Top, from left, Kathryn Paulus, Mindy Kneprath and Emily Paulus check in with Lori and Dan Montaine. Above left, 4H member Brent Lederer is pictured with his target and his father, Peter. Left, Ozaukee 4-H member Braxton Gahan, center, meets with a judge.
