

4-Hers visit Ozaukee County Board

Photos by Denise Seyler

Top, Virginia Lee, second from left, a 4-H member, shadows Ozaukee County Board Supervisor Kathlyn Geracie, left, during a learning session at the Aug. 6 board meeting. Geracie explains the workings of the county board. 4-H members enthusiastically asked questions to their shadowed board member after providing breakfast to the board. Left top, Spencer Knier, a 4-H member from Grafton, presents his display of the many awards won at the Ozaukee County Fair this year for county board members to view before their meeting began. Left bottom, Jessie Schoessow, a 4-H member and Homestead High School student, learns about the inner-workings of county government from Supervisor Richard Diffenbach of Cedarburg. Schoessow showcased several awards she won at the fair and was one of three girls who sang the national anthem before the board meeting convened. All 4-H members sat next to the county supervisors and received first-hand knowledge of the voting process as several key votes were taken at the meeting.