The 159th annual Ozaukee County Fair is underway at the fairgrounds in Cedarburg. The five-day event is one of the last free fairs left in the state, but offers as much or more than any other. That includes top, midway rides like the Ferris wheel. On Wednesday morning 4-H members reported to the fairgrounds early to get their animals comfortable and ready for visitors. Above left, Casey Wills of the Deckers Corners 4-H Club brushes her cow, Brutus. Above right, Jorganna Meijchar of the Jay Road 4-H Club takes her pig out for a drink of water. Above center, Wisconsin Fairest of the Fair Rebecca Starkenberg, left, visits the fair on opening day. She is pictured with Ozaukee County Fairest of the Fair Kim Mueller. To see the full fair schedule, go to www.ozaukeecountyfair.com.
