

Developer, businessman aim to buy Port Catholic school

PUBLISHED IN PORT WASHINGTON

Ozaukee PRESS

Wisconsin's Largest Paid Circulation Community Weekly

000017 000000 PORT CATHOLIC SCHOOL
MAIL BOX 394
PORT WASHINGTON, WI 53074-0994

Three sections

Thursday, August 3, 2017

$1.75

Catching the eyes of coaches
Gratton, Port baseball players receive North Shore All-Conference honors.
Sports

Teen hobby forged in fire
Inspired by a reality TV show, 15-year-old Taylor Stewart has made several knives, bottle openers and other items with the forge and anvil in his Town of Saukville garage.
Good Living

Getting a sneak peek at County Fair entries past and present

Making the rounds of farms last week to check out the projects of 4-H Club members on the eve of the Ozaukee County Fair, Chantel Engel and Capt. Christy Knowles of the Ozaukee County Sheriff's Office (from left in back) stopped at the Rychlik farm in the Town of Port Washington, where they met Sydney, 13 (left), Peyton, 15 (right), and one very large pig. The 800-pound sow was shown at a previous fair and is now a family pet. The Rychlik girls are members of the Knellsville 4-H Club and will show livestock at this year's fair, which opened Wednesday, Aug. 2, and runs through Sunday, Aug. 6, at the fairgrounds in Cedarburg. Photo by Sam Aréndt

Inside the PRESS

www.ozaukeeexpress.com

Section A Opinion pages
Sports • Business • Public notices
Section B Front page news
Obituaries • Saukville news
Gratton news • Fredonia news
Belgium news
Section C Good Living features
Recipes • Weddings • Engagements
Real Estate • Classifieds

0 94922 60053 0