A fair to remember

A year of planning and scheduling went into making the five-day run of Ozaukee County Fair a resounding success. Mark your calendars for next year's fair, Aug. 3 through Aug. 7. More pictures will appear in Thursday's News Graphic.

Photos by Mark Justesen

Alice in Dairyland makes an appearance at the livestock auction Thursday evening.

Members of the Ozaukee County Fair royalty pose with this year's grand champion sheep owned by Dylan Klug in the blueplaid shirt. With him is the purchaser, from Burzel's Oldfashioned Meat Market in Milwaukee, and his family.

Proceeds from the sale of cream puffs are used each year for scholarships for students in Ozaukee County. The booth is hosted by Ozaukee County HCE – Home and Community Education.

Plumes of smoke fill the air at Saturday night's farm tractor pull at the grandstand

4-H youngsters, from front Brandon Heinen, Alec Youngthunder and Jake Roden, push a bale of straw into the horse barn.

A dazzling display of fireworks entertained first-night fair crowds for half an hour Wednesday evening.