

Another year of sweet memories

Share your favorite memory of this year's Ozaukee County Fair at goo.gl/38mH7a

Above, Ozaukee County Fair directors Natalie Salkowski and Bob Winkel cruise around the fairgrounds. Below, the Nick's Kids show keeps kids active at the Center Stage.

Above, Jaay Roden, far right, shows off her grand-champion swine. The pig was sold at auction to Bunzel's Meat Market and Catering. Below right, Casey Willis of Deckers Corners 4-H tickles a squeal out of her pig.

Photos by Mark Justesen

Above left, reigning Mr. Ozaukee 4-H Dylan Wohlers crowns 2018's Mr. Ozaukee, Joshua Riemer, Sunday at the Ozaukee County Fair. Above right, Riemer and 2018's Miss Ozaukee, Anastasia Poull, accept congratulations from the audience. Riemer is a member of Lindenwood 4-H; Poull belongs to Jay Road 4-H Club. Rebecca Dowe (in blue, above left) was named first runner up. Dowe is a member of Knellsville 4-H.

Tommy C & Judy Love and the Barstool Mountain Boys plays a set of music on the Center Stage on opening day.

Margaret Gawlik explains the criteria of judging quilts in the open class.

The Key Award, the highest honor awarded by Ozaukee County 4-H, honors a select group of 4-H participants annually. The youth receiving this award have demonstrated consistent growth in their 4-H involvement, developed and applied their leadership skills and actively participated in leadership functions of their club and their community. This year's recipients were honored at a ceremony Sunday during the Ozaukee County Fair. From left are Jessy Schoessow, Kevin Gierach and Sarah Riemer, all members of Lindenwood 4-H Club in Mequon. State Sen. Dwey Stroebel presented each honoree with a United States flag, which will be flown over the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C.

Above left, display in the small-animal building proves that eggs come in many shades. Above right, a family checks out the rabbits and poultry during their trip to the fair.