

A rainbow appears as a good omen at the start of the Ozaukee County Fair Wednesday afternoon.

Photo submitted

Ozaukee County Fair wrapped up its five-day run Sunday with a full slate of activities. More pictures will appear in Thursday's News Graphic

Photos by Mark Justesen and Art Dahlke

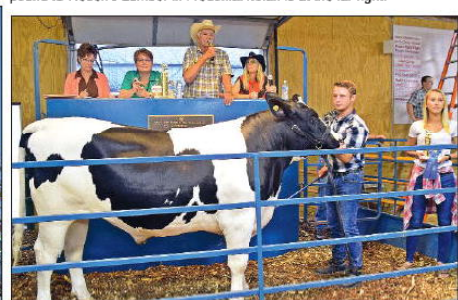

Nolan Goehring's entry in the 4-H beef sale Thursday sold for $4.50 a pound to Neuen's Lumber in Fredonia. Nolan is at the far right.

Hunter Kastlin of Cedarburg, right, and his cousin, Caslin Hunter of Eau Claire, groom Hunter's pigs, Vanilla and Spot, prior to showing them Wednesday.

Carnival rides (above) and livestock (below) are an integral part of the Ozaukee County Fair.

Auctioneer Rich Rathke sells Josh Depies's entry in Thursday's 4-H beef sale for $3 a pound to Hartmann Sand and Gravel in Fredonia.

Pete Kordus competes in the tractor pull Thursday evening.

Two-year-old Ava from Milwaukee plays milkmaid as she "milks" the model cow in front of the Columbia St. Mary's Center.

Submitted photo

After a long day at the fair, a 4-H youngster finds a comfy place to rest.

Lillian Schneider, dressed as Heidi, participates in the lamb costume event.

The Playlist was the closing band on the Centre Stage Thursday night.

Crossfire performs at the Main Stage Thursday evening.

The crowd jams to the music of The Toys Thursday evening on the Centre Stage.