Showmanship
Breeding stock
- Beef sell first in the sale; then dairy beef; move all animals down the EAST side of the barns to the sale ring...MISS your SPOT in the sale--YOU will NOT sell...buyer posters must be up by 10am on Friday. Get information to Steve for the shipment of your 2nd animal...

- Be respectful of other animals when you are walking your steers during the Horse Show...

Sheep - Bob & Mari Schmit

- 4-7pm weight in; 2 sheep can be weighed in and shown. Sheep need to be slick sheared for the weigh in. Grade needs to be Average choice. Weights 100-160 pounds.
- Females need scrapies tag. No discussion with the grader during grading. The scale has been certified.
- Keep sheep out of the concrete isle in the horse barn. Dispose of water in the north or south end of the barn.

Swine - Jim Hoerchner

- 2-6 pm arrival time to check in. You will need your pink VET papers, swine documentation and $10 for trucking for your 2nd hog when you check in on Tuesday. 6:30 weigh in Tuesday nite. Average 2 to sell in the sale. Sale payment is on 220-295 pounds.
- Matt Falkner will be in charge of running the isles for the weigh in. Be at your pen so you are ready when it is your turn...
- Second hog sheet due to Jim by Friday
- Swine youth need to do "garbage" pickup in and around the swine barn...see note posted in the barn.
- If you need to see Jim during the fair, look in the SE corner of the swine barn.

In General from Stephanie:

- Herdsmanship has some changes...clubs have the opportunity to judges other clubs within their same species on Friday, Aug. 2.
- Thanks to those who helped with cleaning out and setting up prior to the fair. Clean up after the Fair will be on Mon., Tues., and Wed.
- Need youth to help put shavings into the arena after the meeting.
- Deanna needs to see specific youth after the meeting...
- Auction/Dinner set-up...around 330-4 on Thursday afternoon and cleanup after the sale...a reminder to Beef and Dairy Beef youth--- you sell first, so please be sure to be back at the sale arena to help with cleanup...also looking for helpers to put signs during the sale...find Heidi before/after you sell to help out...
- Steve Rathke reminding everyone that there is NO FOOD in any of the barns...it is a State law...
