Greeting Ozaukee County 4-H Families and Volunteers,

University of Wisconsin- Madison Division of Extension Ozaukee County is happy to announce that Jayna Hintz has been hired as the Ozaukee County 4-H Program Coordinator. Jayna will start July 1st, 2019.

Jayna Hintz holds a B. S. in Fine Art from the University of Wisconsin Madison and a MA in Art Therapy from Saint Mary-of-the Woods College. Her graduate studies focused on human development and psychological theories and techniques that apply to all ages and stages of life.

Jayna brings extensive experience in program development and management including research, planning, implementation, presentation and assessment. For the past four-years, she served as the Associate Director/Outreach Specialist for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (UWM), providing leadership, vision, and coordination for programs, instructors and volunteers. Her achievements have included evaluating and delivering high quality continuing education curriculum while increasing program offerings by over 50 percent.

Before joining UWM, Jayna worked as the Curator of Education, Multigenerational Programming Specialist & Accessibility Advocate at the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum. She initiated educational programs and presented at national conferences specifically focusing on multi-sensory creative engagement programs for individuals with low vision and blindness; developed programs for individuals with memory loss and their care partners; shaped art and literacy based curricula (Making Friends through Art) for Marathon county Head Start; established Marathon County Department of Public Instruction's Art Connections, which focused on improving adolescents self-identity, and organized bereavement art-based collaborative programs with Hospice organizations.

Jayna shares her passion for the arts and learning as an adjunct professor of a summer hybrid evening course for Upper Iowa University on Environmental Art and continues to lead a variety of art-based classes and workshops that focus on exploring self-expression and creativity.

We look forward to having Jayna join the team at the Extension Ozaukee County office. Over the next several months, Jayna will be setting up meetings with key volunteers and committees. Please help us in showing Jayna a warm 4-H welcome!
