

4-H honors its leaders

1

Ozaukee County 4-H Leaders Association held its annual recognition banquet Sept. 15.

1. and 2. Mike Krummey and the Ozaukee County Sheriff's Office received the Friend of 4-H Award. Krummey is instrumental for its efforts with The Haunt, the organization's largest fundraiser. The Sheriff's Department was honored for its partnership with 4-H. Accepting awards for the Sheriff's Department were Chantelle Engel and Christy Knowles.

3

3. and 4. The Rathkes and Christie Dieringer received Leadership Recognition Awards. Steve Rathke involved with the Livestock Association and Jackie Rathke, the leader of the Little Kohler club is very involved in the county-wide rabbit project. Both are strong role models for the youth in their clubs. Christie Dieringer is an 18-year leader with the Holy Cross 4-H Club and is involved with the small animal committee and the Livestock Association. She also works with the 4-H Ambassadors.

2

4

Photos by Mark Justesen